CORRESPONDENCE. - In the old times in Warrenton when farmers met and chatted pleasantly over a glass or two of whickey and water, and local option had never been heard of; when social dinners were given, where every thing was put on the table at once, and Dr. Chilton's giver sugar dish was the wonder of the town, two neighbors need to wood and the second case. water, and local option had never been heard of; the town, two neighbors used to meet, and case. when they had swallowed the first glass of grog would immediately enter into a discusion as to which was ithe greater man, Admiral Van Tramp or D. Rayter. As there was no way to decide the question, it was a never failing topic of conversation. At last they bit upon a novel way of terminating the dispute, which was that each of them would name a son after their respective idol. asd it was agreed that he should be considered the greater admiral whose namesake tersed cut the best.

One of the boys so named is Mr. James De-Royter Blackwell, the poet, who lives near Warrenton, and the other is Mr. Van Tromp Chilton, who, in early life, moved to Mic-souri and made a large fortune It was with him that the following correspondence took place with a less fortugate relative who did not go to Missouri and who up to this writing has not made a fortune:
WARBENTON. Va., Dec., 1881.

DEAR COUSIN VAN IBOMP. - I hear that you are blessed with a large portion of this world's goods. I came out of the war a wreck. If you could give me the loan of $500 for thirty sixty or ninty days, or even for twelve months with which to stert a small newspaper you would reatly oblige your needy consin. J. V. CHILTON.

To this vote Mr. Chilton replied-J. V. CHILTON, Esq.

Dear Mir,-I am not secking new investmouts. I am engaged in settling up my worldly .ffairs, as I expec soon to cross the River. R. spre fally.
VAN TROMP CHILTON.
To this note Mr. Jr. V. Chilton replied on a postal. DEAR COUSIN VAN TROMP.

Not having any worldly affairs to engage my attention, will cross with you.

Affictionate'y, J. V. CHILTON. - Warrenton Solid South.

THE NEW JUDGE OF THE SIXTH CIRCUIT.-Mr. Geo. P. Hughes, of Gocchland, has been elected judge of the Sixth Julical Circuit, to succeed Judge Daniel A. Grims'ey. Mr. Hughes was formerly Commonwealth's Attorney and is at present County Judge of his county. He has practised law for some years in the courts of his own and the neighboring counties, but has never ranked as anything higher than a very ordinary county court lawyer. It is even said by some who know him that he his a singularly confused mind, and is hardly possessed of ordinary intelligence. He is said to be an honest and resp cable rerson, but utterly incompetent to fil the bigh and responsible position of Circuit Judge. Nineteerwentieths of the people of the Circuit will heer ly regret the retirement of Judge Grimsley. Site; be has been on the banch he has won the admiration of all who have come in contact with him. As a gentleman he was ex remely popular, as a Judge ab e, incorruptable and an honor to the borch. He leaves the position which he has so signally adorned, with the reand in his Oyster Rooms for Gentlemen. Patrons may rely upon picked Oysters and the best cookery in all styles.

Alexandris, Va., August 4, 1881.

I was thrown from my horse 6 or 7 years ago, and suffered a severe wound of the side, which was aggravated by disordered kidneys. Rieven months ago I was attacked with preumonia and bladder disease, deposits of brick dust and albumen being discernable by the naked eye. I was confined to the house for air munths, and man confined to the house for six months, and was unable to cross the floor without assistance. My unable to cross the floor without assistance. My physician did me no good. Having read in my religious weeklies of the wonderful cures by your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, and being advised to use it by Captain Graham, I did so, and am once more able to walk the streets. My pains have left me, and I believe if I had used the remedy a year ago I should then also have been cured.
